Chromic Acid

Peroxide of Chromium

Chrom. Ox.

This Acid is of a dark red color almost black when heated, Sour, and Metallic, and Soluble in Water.

In accordance with the recommendation of several of the Professors of the Institution, of which I have the honor to be a member, I have selected as the subject of a Thesis, the proofings of Chromic Acid, made by myself and one of my fellow Students, in the early part of the session, and hope they may prove acceptable, and an useful addition to our Materia Medica.

The solution by a gentle heat, the Hydrastone and escapes, and the Chromic Acid is retained pure. Or. Instead of pouring the vapors into water, let it strike against a sheet of blotting paper loosely crumpled by the hand into a ball, the vapors will be absorbed as before, and the Chromic Acid obtained in dry crystals.

(Francis' Chemical Experiments)

Chromic Acid

Peroxide of Chromium $\text{Chr.} + \text{O}_3$

This Acid, is of a dark red color, almost black when heated; Sour, and Metallic; and Soluble in Water.

To procure the Acid, Mix four parts of Chrome Yellow (Chromate of Lead) with three parts of finely powdered Fluor Spar, previously heated to redness, and five parts of strong Sulphuric Acid. Heat this in a Lead or Silver Retort, and a red vapour will be liberated. This vapour is the Fluoride of Chromium, which by adding water, is decomposed into Hydrofluoric, and Chromic Acids. By evaporating the solution by a gentle heat, the Hydrofluoric acid escapes, and the Chromic Acid is retained pure.

Or. Instead of receiving the red vapour into water let it strike against a sheet of blotting paper loosely crumpled by the hand into a ball; the vapour will be decomposed as before, and the Chromic Acid obtained in dry crystals.

(Francis' Chemical Experiments)

The following is another, and said to be a better mode of procuring pure Chromic Acid, and was that used in procuring the Acid used in the following proceedings.

Formula: $\text{Chr} + \text{O}_3$.

Chromosuperfluoride, $\text{Chr} + \text{F}_6$, produces when coming in contact with water, Chromic Acid and Fluoric Acid.

$\text{Chr} + \text{F}_6$ and $3\text{H}_2\text{O}$ give $\text{Chr} + \text{O}_3$ and $3\text{H}_2 + \text{F}_2$.

Mix four parts of Chromic-acid-oxide of Lead with three parts of Fluor Spar, free from Silicic Acid, and seven parts of Smoking (Strong) Sulphuric Acid, in a Retort of Lead or Platinum, and conduct the escaping vapours (gasses) of Superfluoride into a Platinum Crucible containing water, in which decomposition takes place. Then evaporating the fluid in the Crucible, the Fluoric Acid escapes, and the Chromic Acid remains in form of a dark red, but not Crystalline substance.

If the Platinum Crucible is moistened with water, and the opening covered with moist paper, the decomposition of Chromo-superfluoric gas which is conducted into it takes place by the moisture of the air thus produced; Fluoric acid gas escapes, and the Crucible is filled with a very loose mass of cinnamon-red needle like Crystals of Chromic Acid,

By these processes it forms in the one case a red substance; and in the other red needle like Crystals.

When heated it appears black - is easily soluble with water; and forms a brown solution.

It readily parts with its Oxygen, and when coming in contact with organic bodies, especially with Alcohol, sugar, or paper, becomes disoxydized, and an Oxide.

In the preparation of the medicine, the brown substance was used. Seven grains of it was dissolved in One hundred drops of distilled water, and one drop of the solution taken to Ninety nine drops of distilled water, and 20 Shakes given. The first Six Potions were prepared in this manner. From the 6th to the 30th. Alcohol was used.

Eyes sore, and feel heavy as if inflamed.

Pulse 84 at 4 P.M.

At night dreamed that I had an attack of Strangury, which on awaking in the morning proved to be the case, and from which I did not get relief for nearly two hours.

Novem. 18th For four successive days took two doses per day of the 30th Potency, increasing each dose as before.

Novem 20th At 4 o'clock this morning was awakened with a feeling of uneasiness in the lower part of the Abdomen, which was very son to the touch, especially along the course of the Colon, accompanied with nausea, and frebeing the same in two successive hours.

Second prover.

1st proving.

Novem 3. For 4 successive days this prover took two doses per day of the 7th potency.

On the fourth day he felt a "general coldness all over." "At night many dreams - he dreams of crossing a stream on horseback; the stream, and the water on him freezes." "Pulse below standard."

2^d proving.

At 6 A.M. Experienced a severe sharp pain in the Hypogastric region, and along the ascending Colon, which became very severe and cutting, and lasted half an hour when he was relieved by a profuse Diarrhea which lasted 3 hours. Then the symptoms all ceased, and were as the same as yesterday set in, followed by the same sickness of stomach, both of which lasted until 4 P.M. as before.

Novem 26th Awoke this morning with pain in the Colon, accompanied with rumbling of wind, which passed off on rising. Headache set in at 10 AM and continued until 4 PM as before."

1. Confusion After an interval of some days, this power resumed the usual doses, of the effects of which he says "All the symptoms returned in the above order, but lighter each time of trial."

And in a note accompanying his progress he says, "The last medicine, 30th potency, affected the circulation. My pulse was slower, and I could not get warm for nearly a week after I had finished the medicine."

Having in the foregoing pages given the progress in detail, as exhibited from day to day, I shall now proceed to arrange the symptoms, according to the various Organs and parts affected, and in the order in which I find them in Hahnemann's works, knowing that I could not leave a better model.
